

OBS Organizer Position for Workers Rights

Fighting for the rights and dignity of workers is a critical component of OBS's work. The Workers' Rights Organizer will be responsible for building a viable committee to support the work and building a base of voters expressing an interest in this work. The organizer is familiar with worker issues and organizations committed to this work. The organizer will represent OBS in coalition spaces and at events.

Qualifications

- Must have at least three years of organizing experience
- Must be able to manage time and resources effectively
- Must be self-motivated and highly energetic
- Must be open to learning and growing
- Must be familiar with maintenance of databases
- Must have good written and verbal communication skills
- Must have functioning vehicle with valid driver's license and car insurance
- Must be social media savvy

Staff Expectations

- Model the core values and conscientious workstyle of OBS
- Participate in regular staff meetings
- Attend all trainings mandated by OBS
- Identify people and gather contact information for leadership ladder (tornado)
- Attend meetings and events related to staff's scope of work
- Keep abreast of issues, policies, legislation, research, etc. related to staff's scope of work
- Support fundraising goals of the organization
- Assist in building and sustaining collaborative relationships that strengthen and expand the racial justice movement locally and nationally
- Contribute write-ups and photos on work
- Complete summations of work and weekly report forms (based upon work plans)

Compensation & Benefits:

Based on experience.

Contact:

Please send a cover letter, three references of people familiar with your work experience, and a resume to contactus@obs-stl.org. Applications will be accepted until a suitable candidate is selected.

OBS is an equal opportunity employer and strongly encourages applications from people of color, people with disabilities, women, and LGBT applicants.